

Accessing GCB Cyber Range from a web browser

Table of Contents

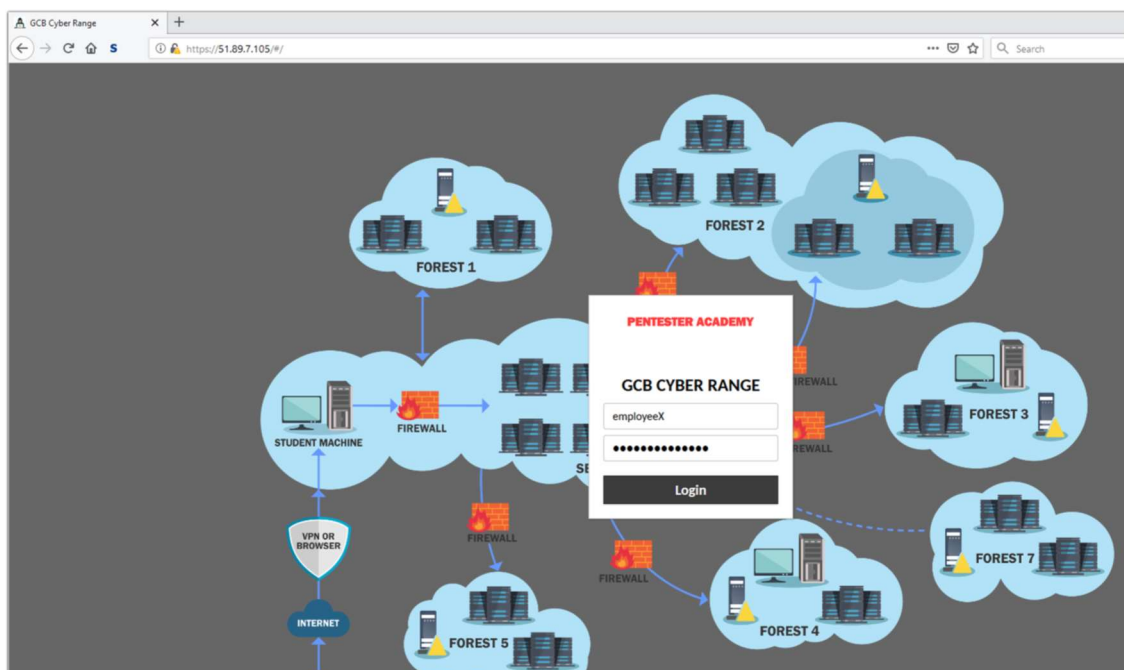

Login using web browser	2
Copying text from host machine to lab VM.....	4
Copying text from Lab VM to host machine	6
Copy files from host machine to lab VM	7
Copy files from lab VM to host machine	9

Login using web browser

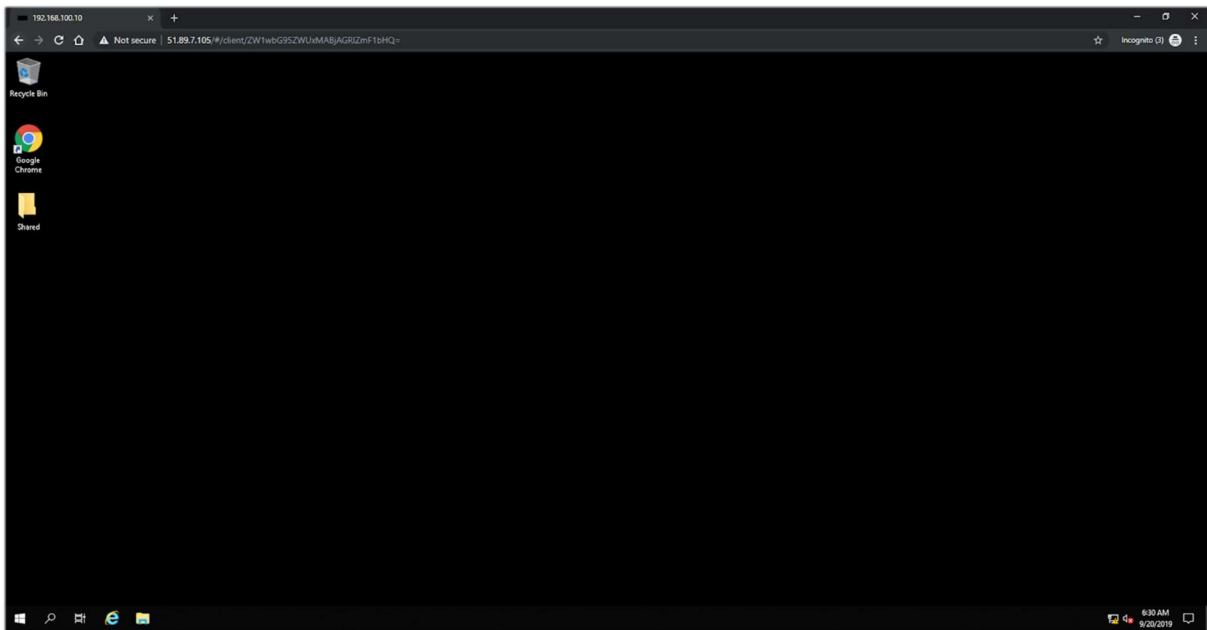

Step 1: Browse to the server URL 'https://<ServerIP>' and accept the certificate warning to open the login page:

Step 2: Enter the username and password shared with you to login:

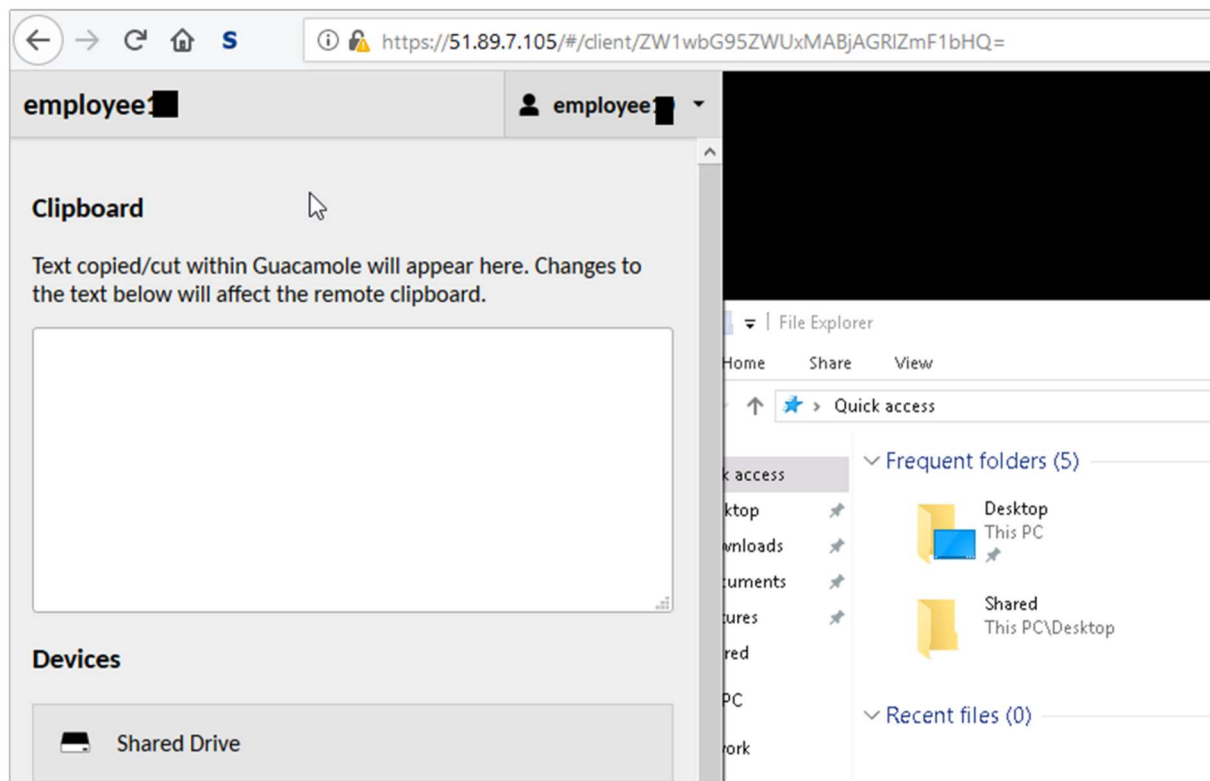

Step 3: You can now access the lab VM without needing anything else.

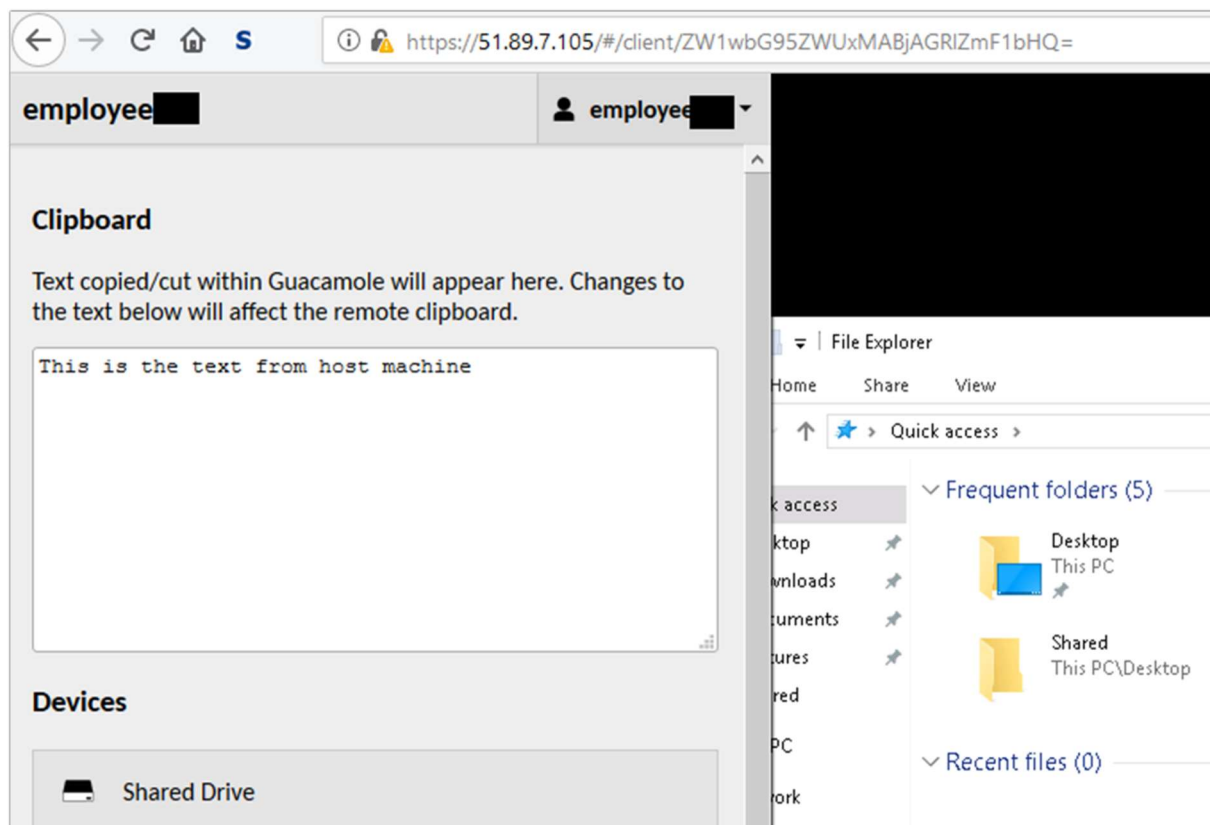

Copying text from host machine to lab VM

Step 1: After login, use Ctrl + Alt + Shift on the browser to open clipboard:

Step 2: Copy text from host machine and paste in the clipboard:

Step 3: Press Ctrl + Alt + Shift on the browser to copy the text to lab VM's clipboard.

Step 4: Press Ctrl + v to paste the text in notepad or any other application on the lab VM. It is recommended to use notepad when copying multiline commands.

Copying text from Lab VM to host machine

Step 1: Copy text from the lab VM.

Step 2: Press Ctrl + Alt + Shift to open the clipboard. The text you copied from the lab VM will be there.

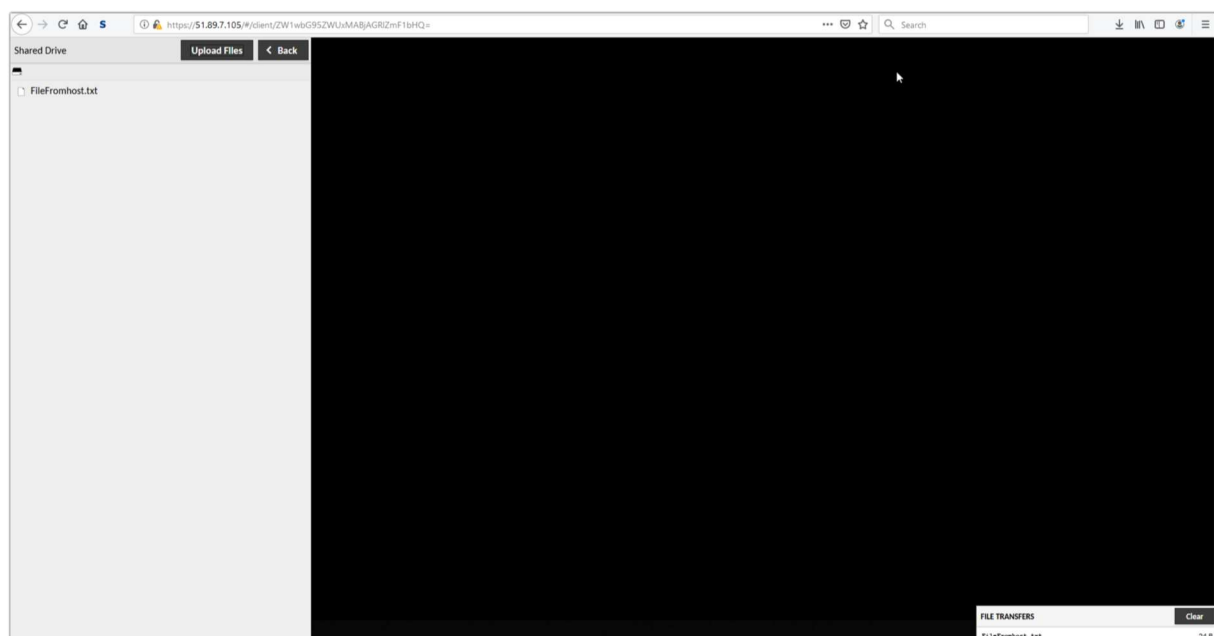

Step 3: Copy the text from the clipboard using Ctrl + c and paste it in any application on your host machine.

Copy files from host machine to lab VM

Step 1: Press Ctrl + Alt + Shift in the browser window and click on Shared Drive. Click on 'Upload Files' and browse to the file that you want to upload:

Step 2: You can check the file transfer status at the bottom right corner:

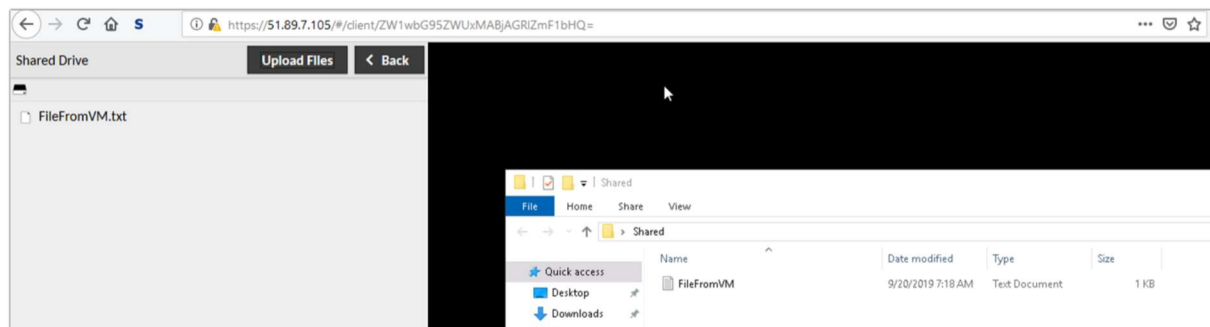

Step 3: Access the file from a folder called 'Shared' on user Desktop on lab VM.

Copy files from lab VM to host machine

Step 1: Copy the file you want to download to the folder named 'Shared' on user Desktop on the lab VM. Press Ctrl + Alt + Shift on the browser window and click on 'Shared Drive'. The file you copied to the 'Shared' folder will be visible:

Step 2: Double click the file you want to download:

