It is common among my circle of friends to have Battlestar Galactica-watching parties, and one way of making it a party is by playing games.

Things we've done (or plan on doing):

- Battlestar Galactica tarot card readings.
- Battlestar Galactica Jeopardy.
- Battlestar Galactica Family Feud (based on results of actual online polls, like “Which Battlestar Galactica character would look good in a dress.”)
- Battlestar Galactica Apples to Apples.
- Battlestar Galactica Password.
- Battlestar Galactica cocktails.
