

Learning about farm animals from my niece

 devblogs.microsoft.com/oldnewthing/20151009-01

October 9, 2015

Raymond Chen

I was playing with my niece (three years old at the time of this story), and she taught me a lot about farm animals.

- You get eggs from cows and pigs.
- Cow eggs are black and taste like bananas.
- Pig eggs are blue and pink and taste like ice cream.
- Blue pig eggs taste like vanilla.
- Pink pig eggs taste like strawberry.

According to the International Egg Commission, today is World Egg Day.

Raymond Chen

Follow

